

Report 2

Szymon Mańka

Jeremi Szczotka

Piotr Krupiński

Conceptual Model

The diagram presents a high-level conceptual view of the flight delay analysis domain.

The central business object is Flight, which is described by operational, temporal, geographic, weather-related, and disruption-related elements.

This model is intentionally non-technical.

It does not show database tables, keys, or data types.

Instead, it reflects how we understand the domain and which factors may influence flight delays and cancellations.

